

Azur Lodge

Queenstown, Southern Lakes

Private Villas

Azur is a contemporary luxury boutique hotel located on a hilltop in Queenstown overlooking some of the most spectacular scenery in NZ.

The nine identical villas cascade down the hillside and all offer uninterrupted views of the lake and mountain ranges. The open plan living ensures views from all areas of the villa. The luxurious bathrooms are spacious and well-appointed featuring a spa bath positioned in a bay window. The private deck is a lovely place to relax and just take in the view.

Azur does not have a dinner restaurant, and we encourage our guests to experience the fantastic dining scene of Queenstown. For those who wish to stay in for the evening, we can arrange an in-villa dining experience.

Azur is known for its privacy and discretion. The team prides themselves in genuinely connecting with guests, sharing their local knowledge to ensure a memorable, unique experience.

Accommodation

Azur's nine private one-bedroom villas were designed to let you absorb the incredible views in chic luxury and total privacy. The floor to ceiling windows frame the outstanding unobstructed views.

Each identical luxury one-bedroom villa is 79sqm of open plan living in the midst of the New Zealand natural environment. Incorporating a lounge, dining area, a private sun deck with a choice of either a king or twin beds dressed with luxury linen to promise an exceptional sleep experience. Each villa can accommodate a maximum of 3 people.

Soak up the spectacular unobstructed views from the bathtub, which has been set into a bay window to give you a feeling of being outdoors.
