Small Stay in NZ 2019, 2020 & 2022

by TripAdvisor – is just 400 metres from the famed Abel Tasman National Park, restaurants, cafes, beaches, water taxis and kayaking.

It is the perfect base to explore the Abel Tasman area. Park your car and walk to all activities.

The lodge is EKOS carbon positive and boasts private modern chalets nestled amongst the stunning native landscape of Marahau (the Abel Tasman Village), this is a tranquil escape combining comfort with the beauty of nature.

All chalets are equipped with air-conditioning, heat pumps, outdoor dining areas, some with fully kitted-out kitchenettes, complimentary fibre internet, communal kitchen, free parking and EV chargers along with, of course, picturesque views of the Abel Tasman National Park.

A delicious breakfast and packed lunch options are also available, focused on local produce.

Along with complimentary access to our stunning spa pool they offer a personalised massage service in our purpose-built room.

New Zealand owned and operated by Jocelyn & Scott Hendry who have transformed the Lodge, while still preserving its place in the natural environment. A strong flavour of New Zealand's flora and fauna is evident throughout the Lodge, supported through a gift shop supporting local arts and crafts.

Directions

Driving from Picton, Nelson and West Coast:

Abel Tasman Lodge

Marahau, Nelson Region

Voted Trip Advisor's best Small Stay in 2019, 2020 & 2022

Abel Tasman Lodge is located on the main road (State Highway 1) just south of the town of Marahau, about 10 km from the town of Riwaka.

When you arrive at the T intersection you turn left and then right (follow green Marahau 9 km sign) look for Abel Tasman National Park (brown sign).

Follow the road onto the beachfront. The Lodge is 400 metres further along – just past Aqua Taxis – and is clearly signposted.
