Abel Tasman Cruise-Fly Day Tour ex Nelson

Starting and finishing in Nelson explore Golden Bay and the Abel Tasman National Park with no retracing of your steps.

Your day will start with a 60-minute shuttle transfer to Kaiteriteri, where you'll depart on a 90-minute scenic boat cruise the length of the Abel Tasman National Park to Totaranui. Keep a lookout for penguins, seals, and dolphins along the way!

Totaranui with its pristine, golden sand, clear water, lush bush, and walking tracks in all directions is the perfect place to enjoy your picnic lunch and soak up the scenery. Take a refreshing swim, relax on the beach or enjoy a short walk in the National Park before boarding your shuttle for a 50-minute shuttle tour with commentary to Golden Bay.

Stopping at Te Waikoropupu Springs - New Zealand's largest freshwater springs and the largest cold water springs in the southern hemisphere, enjoy a short 30-minute loop walk taking you through the forest to a platform that sits partly over the water of Te Waikoropupu Springs. A must-see while in the 'Bay'.

Then it's time to farewell Golden Bay in style with a 30-minute scenic flight back to Nelson, flying over the Abel Tasman coastline.
